

PRODUCT LIST 2025

Napkins, cutlery holders, tablecloths, runners and placemats

Material: Spunlace Nonwoven Fabric.

The raw materials are widely available fibers which can be polyester, nylon, polypropylene, viscose fibers, silk, bamboo fibers, wood pulp fibers, plant fibers.

It is the material we use in baby wipes and in wet antiseptic wipes.

Advantages: amazing softness, excellent fabric contact with the skin, very pleasant feeling to the touch.

Country of origin: Italy.

Environment: The product combines the tactile perception of fine fabrics with the hygienic features of using paper. This particularity allows to avoid possible contacts with bacterial loads, also supporting the saving of water and detergent energy and the preservation of the environment.

Collection: Several different lines (see photos below) with napkins, tablecloths, runners, and placemats as well as new biodegradable items.

EASY Series: The fastest code, these are monochrome napkins printed on the outside only.
